

SPEND $10, GET $10 at your farmers market

Use EBT-SNAP and get up to $10 worth of Market Bucks

Three easy steps to use your EBT-SNAP card at the farmers market:

- 1 Go to the EBT/information booth at a participating farmers market.
- 2 Swipe your EBT card. For every dollar you spend on your EBT card, get an extra dollar in Market Bucks (up to $10 per market, per day).
- 3 Use your EBT and Market Bucks to buy SNAP-eligible food from market vendors.

Get Market Bucks once every day you use your EBT card at participating markets.

What you can buy with SNAP at the farmers market:

Fruits and Vegetables

Meat, Fish, Eggs, and Dairy

Honey and Maple Products

Jams, Jellies, Pickles, and Sauces

Baked Goods

Seeds and Plants that Produce Food

What is EBT-SNAP?

EBT is Electronic Benefits Transfer. It's like a debit card that has your SNAP benefits on it. You use it like a debit card. SNAP is the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, formerly known as food stamps.

To find out if you qualify for SNAP, call the Minnesota Food HelpLine at 1-888-711-1151.

When I swiped my EBT card at the market, they gave me tokens to spend.

What do I do with them?

Tokens can be spent to purchase any SNAP food at the farmers market. Tokens may only be used at the market where they were issued.

What do I do with the Market Bucks?

Use the Market Bucks to buy any SNAP food from vendors at the farmers market. Unused Market Bucks can not be returned for credit or cash. Market Bucks expire October 31, 2017. Market Bucks can be used at any participating market.
